[Redacted]

Acting Deputy Chief of Staff for Military Operations
Department of the Army
Washington, D. C. 20310

Dear General Elder:

Thank you for your letter of 8 June. [Redacted] tells me that the time spent reviewing National Military Strategy 1985-1990 was extremely worthwhile. The most interesting and appropriate remark I noted in the summary of the proceedings you sent me was your own: "There is no Army strategy, there is an Army role in strategy." This is the kind of team approach I hope to see applied to intelligence, too.

Your invitation to participate in similar reviews is much appreciated, and I hope you will keep me on your list of invitees.

Sincerely,

/s/ W. E. Colby
